

HMV UK 12th July 2019

The HMV UK meeting is a multi-disciplinary meeting aiming to provide the latest update to clinical practice for all health care professionals working in home ventilation. The day will bring together both national and international speakers aiming to spread best practice and optimise the care of patients receiving home ventilation in the UK.

09:15 – 09:30 Welcome and introductions – Patrick Murphy, Rachel Moses, Martin Latham

Chair: Patrick Murphy | Past, present & future of home ventilation

09:30 – 10:00 A year in review

Karen Ward, Aintree, UK

10:00 – 10:30 Keynote speaker: 30 years of home ventilation: a retrospective

Rob Bullock, Newcastle, UK

10:30 – 11:00 The future of home ventilation: the next generation

Chris Carlin, Glasgow, UK

11:00 – 11:30 Refreshments, exhibition and networking

Chair: Martin Latham | New modes in home ventilation

11:30 – 12:00 Auto-titrating NIV in the management of OHS: overview and new study results

Maxime Patout, Rouen, France

12:00 – 12:30 Auto-titrating NIV to facilitate out-patient setup: results of an international RCT

Patrick Murphy, London, UK

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch, exhibition and networking

Chair: Patrick Murphy | Optimisation of NIV

13:30 – 14:15 The when, how and why of polygraphy in home NIV

Sigurd Aarrestad, Oslo, Norway

14:15 – 14:45 Home NIV in CF and non-CF bronchiectasis: Problems and solutions

Fiona Cathcart, London, UK

14:45 – 15:15 CBT for COPD

Karen Marshall, Newcastle, UK

15:15 – 15:45 Tea & coffee

Chair: RM Home ventilation: Delivery of care

15:45 – 16:15 Getting it right first time in home ventilation: Lessons from best practice

Martin Allen, Stoke, UK

16:15 – 16:45 Tracheostomy ventilation in MND: A snapshot of UK practice
Jonathan Palmer, Plymouth, UK

16:45 – 17:00 Summation and close

17:00 – 18:00 Networking